

A VIRTUAL LECTURE

Creating Space for What You Love

Mindful Destashing for Makers

Presented by Radha Weaver

FeelGood Fibers | Sewing through Fog

What this lecture covers:

Do you need to destash or just organize? Understanding whether your stash problem is about volume or systems.

What you are really holding onto.

The four types of fabric in every stash and why letting go feels hard.

A practical step-by-step process to actually letting go.

How to sort, create a holding area, and decide what leaves.

Where fabric goes next

A guide to donation, gifting, swaps, buy-nothing groups and selling

A practical, personal, and sustainability-minded guide to organizing your stash and letting go with confidence.

About Radha:

Textile Artist & Passionate Advocate for Sustainable Making

After a 15-year career in the apparel industry at Levi's, Radha founded Sewing through Fog to reconnect with her creative roots. Known for her authenticity, humor, and heart, she encourages others to find beauty in re-purposing and to transform old fabrics into new treasures.

She took over FeelGood Fibers in Dec. 2024 to ensure quilters and sewists had an ethical and accessible place to buy and sell secondhand craft supplies.
